How To Read This Chart

The Grade for each legislator is based on whether they voted against the bad bills described in the box below. The higher the legislator's Grade, the better!

All 10 bad bills passed the Senate, but only the first 3 have become law. The others are in the House, awaiting action.

See the House Grades and more details inside.

The symbols in the chart show how the legislator voted on the bill

10 BAD BILLS - Senate Votes

1. Medicaid for the poor (S-4). This law denies 500,000 poor NC families health-care insurance coverage under Obamacare, starting January 2014. They would be eligible in many other states, but not NC because of this new law. Senators got 10 points for voting NO on the "third reading" vote.

2. Unemployment aid (H-4). This law reduces the benefits and eligibility for unemployment assistance and it also denies federal benefits for 170,000 long-term laid-off workers, beginning July 1, 2013. 10 points for voting NO on second reading.

3. Earned Income Tax Credit (H-82). This new law phases out the EITC for 907,000 low-income working families in NC. The state has a regressive tax structure, which means it puts a greater tax burden on the poor than the rich. The EITC is a way for poor taxpayers to recover some of the unequal share of taxes they pay. 10 points for voting NO on second reading.

4. State Budget (S-402). The Senate's 413-page bill for the NC budget will cut spending for schools and public services, shift more taxes to the poor and middle class, and change many policies; it ends Prisoner Legal Services and the public campaign financing option for judges; it sets aside $770 million in tax cuts for millionaires and cuts NC Pre-K enrollment by 17,000 children. For rest of bills: 10 points, NO on 2nd reading.

5. Charter schools (S-337). This bill weakens public schools by creating a new agency to expand and oversee private schools that get public money but have lower standards for teachers.

6. School authority (S-236). This bill allows boards of county commissioners in nine big counties to control all parts of school construction, pushing aside the local boards of education. The legislature in meddling with school boards in many other ways; for example, the Senate passed S-325 to change the district lines for electing the Wake County Board of Education in an effort to help conservatives overcome a successful multi-racial coalition of voters.

7. Loan charges (S-489). This bill lets consumer lending companies charge much higher interest rates and fees, and it eliminates many protections for consumers.

8. Drug tests (S-594). This bill makes Work First recipients get tested for drugs – and pay for the test up front – before they receive benefits. Why aren't legislators tested for drugs before they vote; they get public money, too.

9. Repeal Racial Justice Act (S-306). This bill guts the hard-fought Racial Justice Act, so systematic racial bias will continue to affect justice and who gets the death penalty.

10. Speed up fracking (S-76). This bill reduces the safeguards for NC's water supplies by allowing companies to bypass regulations to explore for natural gas and oil.

Don't Be Silenced!

From the gallery overlooking the NC House, courageous college students used creative tactics to show their opposition to H-589, a bill that will make it harder for them to vote and have their voices heard.

SCHOOLS, HEALTH, JOBS, TAXES . . .

Legislators in Raleigh are making decisions that have a big impact on you and your community.

The NC General Assembly has already passed new laws that will:

- shift more taxes from the rich to you;
- deny Medicaid for 500,000 of us;
- cut unemployment benefits; and
- increase the cost to attend college.

This REPORT CARD helps you see the impact of elections. The winners get to pass laws that change lives. Inside, you can see how each legislator voted on 10 key bills. Many bills are still being debated, and your voice can shape the outcome.

Politics is how we make decisions as a group. It's messy and often frustrating. But it's dynamic. Public opposition has already defeated several bad bills and changed others. We can't remain silent and let laws get made in the darkness.

We must step up and fight bills that make voting harder, promote discrimination, increase poverty, defund public schools, or threaten our health. Engage others, speak up, and hold officials accountable!

"MORAL MONDAYS" – WHY WE ARE HERE

People are not remaining silent in the face of the terrible legislation coming out of the General Assembly on Jones Street in Raleigh. The Rev. William J. Barber II has asked to meet with the Republican legislative leaders on behalf of the NC NAACP and the Historic Thousands on Jones Street (HK on J) coalition, but they have rebuffed him. This excerpt from his open letter to the GOP leaders, explains why people of goodwill are speaking out and now being arrested during demonstrations at the General Assembly on Monday evenings.

. . . We say to the leadership: You rejected federal funds for Medicaid that stripped over a half million poor people of health care. You rejected federal money for unemployment benefits for over 150,000 workers looking for jobs. You have repeatedly disrespected our sisters and brothers from Latin America.

You insist on promoting policies to defund public education, which will lead to further re-segregation of our children's schools and the eventual abandonment of public education. You cut the tax credit for over 900,000 poor and working people, while giving a tax break to 23 of the wealthiest people in our State.

And you introduced your voter suppression law on a day that all African Americans and people of goodwill remember – April 4th – when Dr. King was assassinated for trying to expand the electorate, not take it back to the days of the whites-only ballot box. While you take aim at the voting rights of the poor, elderly, students and minorities, you seek to make it easier to get guns. You divide the people of North Carolina against one another while putting government into the service of the rich.

Did not Jesus say to us in Matthew 25:

[37]Then the righteous will answer him, "Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink?
[38] When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you?
[39] When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?"
[40] The King will reply, "Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me."

From the moral framework of the scriptures and our constitution, we are calling together a coalition of goodwill, a nonviolent volunteer army of love, to oppose this legislature's heartless, ideologically driven agenda. We call on all people of goodwill to join us, that we might build the bridges of understanding, not the walls of division. We call on all North Carolinians who believe in the common good to pray and partner with us as we use the tools of protest and tactics of nonviolent moral suasion to illuminate for the nation the shameful acts taking place here. We are not alone.

We shall speak and we shall act. We will become "the trumpet of conscience" and "the beloved community" that the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. called upon us to be, echoing the God of our mothers and fathers in the faith. Now is the time. Here is the place. We are the people. And we will be heard.

– Rev. Dr. William J. Barber II, president, NC NAACP, excerpt from "Why We Are Here Today," 4/29/13.

10 BAD BILLS - House Votes

1. Medicaid for the poor (S-4). This law denies 500,000 poor NC families health-care insurance coverage under Obamacare, starting January 2014. They would be eligible in many other states, but not NC because of this new law. Third reading vote used for the legislator's Grade: 10 points for voting NO.

2. Unemployment aid (H-4). This law reduces the benefits and eligibility for unemployment assistance and it also denies federal benefits for 170,000 long-term laid-off workers, beginning July 1. Third reading vote; 10 points for voting NO.

3. Earned Income Tax Credit (H-82). This new law phases out the EITC for 907,000 low-income working families in NC. The state has a regressive tax structure, which means it puts a greater tax burden on the poor than the rich. The EITC is a way for poorer taxpayers to recover some of the unequal share of taxes they pay. Third reading vote; 10 points for voting NO.

4. End estate tax (H-101). While slashing the EITC that helps the working poor, the House passed this bill to give a new tax break to the super rich (those with estates worth over $5.25 million). Only 23 families paid the estate tax in 2012. Ending it will cost the budget $52 million a year. Second reading vote.

5. Photo ID for voters (H-589). Beginning in 2016, voters will have to show a government-issued photo ID before voting. A photo ID from a private college will not work. Other bills to make voting harder are also in the works. Third reading vote.

6. Pre-K enrollment (H-935). This bill dramatically reduces the number of children from low-income families who are eligible for subsidized Pre-K programs, which gives the kids a positive start and frees their parents to work. Third reading vote.

7. Pro-gun legislation (H-937). This bill allows people with concealed weapons permits to take their guns to bars, parks, restaurants, and college campuses! Third reading vote.

8. Anti-labor legislation (H-677). This bill prohibits any local government from adopting a plan that allows public employees to earmark part of their paycheck for dues to a union or labor organization. But a dues check-off to the Chamber of Commerce is OK! Second reading vote.

9. Health care for women (H-730). The amendment (A-1) used for the Grade stripped H-730 of its worst provision; the bill is still bad, but this part denied health care by letting employers refuse to cover contraception in employee health insurance plans. Amendment 1, second reading.

10. Public health (H-1011). This bill replaces many experts on public health, environmental and other policy boards with political allies, and weakens the boards' authority to protect the public. Decisions should be based on science, not because campaign money got someone an appointment. 2nd reading vote.
