

Education, Expectations and Incarceration:

A Look at How Resegregation, High-Stakes Testing and the School-to-Prison Pipeline Marginalize Our Children

The Fifth Annual Romallus O. Murphy CLE
Sponsored by The NC State Conference of the NAACP

Four (4.0) hours of CLE credit have been requested from the North Carolina State Bar

Wednesday, October 12, 2011

at the

Best Western Hotel

135 South Main Street, High Point, NC

12:30 am - 5:00 pm

Registration & Lunch begin at 11:30 am

All registration fees include lunch

- ⇒ $70 for attorneys who are NAACP members
- ⇒ $100 for non-NAACP member attorneys (includes $30 for NAACP membership)
- ⇒ FREE for Judges
- ⇒ $10 for all others not seeking CLE credit

PROGRAM

- Resegregation trends in public schools systems across the state and how this impacts the entire state.
- The impact of high-stakes testing on minority children. How reliance on testing is reeking havoc on our educational system and discipline patterns in schools.
- The School-to-Prison Pipeline: How education and the criminal justice system intersect and the impact on minority students.
- What YOU can do to be part of the solution!

To Register call NC NAACP Office at 1-866-NC-NAACP for more information.

Rev. Dr. William J. Barber, II
President

Mrs. Amina J. Turner
Executive Director